

Robert Massenburg

*Managing Director in SunTrust Robinson
Humphrey's Healthcare Investment Banking
Group*

Prior to joining STRH in 2000, was an SVP with Wells Fargo (legacy Wachovia) where he spent 17 years. Experience includes a wide variety of Healthcare related financing issues including fixed and floating rate tax-exempt debt issues, interest rate management products, synthetic leases, sale leasebacks, credit tenant leases, taxable syndicated For-Profit and Not-For-Profit MY RLOC transactions, subordinated debt issues and equity offerings. His healthcare experience dates back to 1993. His client base includes large single and multi state healthcare systems in the eastern portion of the US. Prior to 1993, Robert covered a variety of manufacturers and distributors, with both domestic and international operations in the Regional Corporate markets.

Robert received his BA in Economics from University of Georgia in 1983.