

HEALTH CARE CHAMPIONS

VANESSA BARNABEI, PH.D., M.D.

Professor and chair,
University at Buffalo,
Obstetrics and Gynecology

► Data: 219 Bryant St., Buffalo, NY 14222 • vmbarnab@buffalo.edu

► With this company for: 4.5 years

► In the health care field for: 36 years

► Born in: Vineland, N.J.

► Lives in: Williamsville

► College: B.S., Rutgers University (Livingston College); Ph.D., University of Virginia; M.D., University of Virginia

► Children: Elisabeth, Benjamin

► Awards and achievements: Milwaukee Magazine's Best Doctors, 2012 Best Doctors in America, 2011-12 Medical College of Wisconsin Outstanding Faculty Award, 2012 National Faculty Award for Excellence in Teaching, 2004 The Patrick and Margaret McMahon Endowed Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Medical College of Wisconsin, 2000-12 Top 20 Physicians, Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital, Milwaukee, 2001-12 chair, UB Department of OB/GYN

► Proudest accomplishment in the last year: We have made major strides at Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo in developing policies and procedures that have successfully decreased maternal morbidity in terms of surgical-site infections, postpartum hemorrhage and other hospital-acquired conditions. I also went on my first medical mission this year to Nicaragua, an experience that was both fulfilling and frustrating.

► Entered my profession because: Since I was a girl, I saw inequities in the way women were treated in school and in life, and I wanted to help women reach their full potential. With my interest in biology and genetics, health care was the obvious choice for a profession. I cannot imagine having done anything else with my life and career. Obstetrics and gynecology have enabled me to have a positive impact on the lives of women and their families through clinical care and research; deliver babies, which is one of the most fun and thrilling things a person can do; and teach and train the next generation (or two) of medical providers.

► Hobbies/interests: Tennis, piano, reading/self-improvement

► Bucket list: Travel to exotic places like the Galapagos Islands. Live at the beach. Learn a new language.

KEVIN BIDTAH

Chief information officer,
Evergreen Health

► Data: 206 S. Elmwood Ave, Buffalo, NY 14201 • kbidtah@evergreenhs.org

► With this company and in the health care field for: 17 years

► Born in: Durango, Colo.

► Lives in: Hamburg

► College: B.A., University at Buffalo

► Spouse: Leah

► Children: Elijah, Anna, Judah, Noah, Laura, Michael

► Proudest accomplishment in the last year: Finding a great team to build our information systems department to include IT, telecommunications, electronic health records, security and database systems. We could not have accomplished milestones of the last year without this team. The company grew by 138 staff in 2016. We added locations and moved staff between buildings. We improved our network infrastructure, asset management and deployment process, ticketing systems, security and telecommunications. We transitioned from paper to electronic record systems that capture data, meet industry quality and security standards, and plan for an environment to manage our population's health care.

► Entered my profession because: I began work in case management for individuals living with HIV/AIDS because I saw how much this population needed help and a voice. I eventually moved into IT and database work because there was a need for staff in these areas. I began working on the transition to electronic records two years ago. We were a nonprofit that provided care and documented most things on paper. Now we are a company that functions mostly in an electronic-records environment.

► Hobbies/interests: Chess, spending time with family, watching my boys play hockey and my girls learn ballet

► Favorite nonprofits: Evergreen Health, Jericho Road, International Institute of Buffalo

► Bucket list: Grow old with my wife. Be a great dad. Take my wife and kids to visit their family on the Navajo reservation.

HELEN CAPPUCCINO M.D.

Surgical oncologist,
Roswell Park
Cancer Institute

► Data: Elm and Carlton streets, Buffalo, NY 14263

► With this company for: 18 years

► In health care field for: 29 years

► Born in: Kenmore

► Lives in: Lockport

► College: B.A., cellular physiology, University at Buffalo; M.D., University at Buffalo; surgical residency, Hahnemann Medical School/Monmouth Medical Center, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center

► Spouse: Andrew Cappuccino, M.D.

► Children: Jacqueline, Andrew, Mac, Jake, Nicholas, Elizabeth

► Grandchildren: Darn it! None yet! But I do have a grandkitty named Maestro.

► Awards/achievements: University at Buffalo Volunteer of the Year 2016, medical school; keynote speaker, John S. Koplas Memorial Lecture Series (May 2014); WNY Community Leader Healthcare Award, National Federation of Just Communities, WNY chapter, 2010; AMA Physician Recognition Award 1995-97; Positive Physician Project – selected as one of America's 50 most positive physicians, 1995; features editor and writer Gastronomie magazine and several medical publications; author, "Being a Woman Surgeon: 60 Women Share Their Stories," two selections (April 2015); "The Best of Medicine: Doctors, Patients and the Covenant of Caring"; "The Best Medicine: Stories of Doctors and Patients who Care for Each Other"; Vertebra Film Development: producer of five feature-length films, some chosen for film festivals including Toronto International Film Festival, Big Apple Film Festival, Austin Film Festival, CineVegas

► Proudest accomplishment in the last year: We finally finished formally educating all our children this year; paid the last tuition bill. All six kids have college degrees. Professionally, each day I see and care for patients is a series of little victories and a compassionate touch (I hope!) that makes their cancer journey easier. I am especially proud when I am able to educate patients in a way that helps them to minimize their surgical intervention and maximize their clinical outcome. I will be happy if one day there is no need for anyone to do a job like mine.

► Entered my profession because: As much as it is a cliché to say, I really chose medicine to help people. I chose surgery because I like the pace and unique, decisive fulfillment of it. I chose Roswell specifically because patients are at a critical life and medical juncture and I feel I can impact positively on their medical and surgical care while being kind and compassionate, making their journey a little easier. I like the longitudinal aspect of cancer care, getting to know patients and follow them over their lifetime.

► Hobbies/interests: Travel, food and wine activities (Chaîne des Rôtisseurs), playing Scrabble, reading, movies

► Favorite nonprofits: Albright-Knox Art Gallery, WNY Women's Foundation, UB Foundation, Roswell Park Cancer Institute

► Bucket list: Being a grandmother. Seeing an opera in each of the great opera houses around the world (preferably Italian operas). Take all my kids and their loved ones on a wine tour. Take grandkids to Walt Disney World, as we did with our children.

TERRIE CARBONE PNP

Pediatric nurse practitioner, Roswell Park Cancer Institute

► Data: Elm and Carlton streets, Buffalo, NY 14263 • theresa.carbone@roswellpark.org

► With this company for: 23 years

► In the health care field for: 38 years

► Born in: Buffalo

► Lives in: Buffalo

► College: R.N., B.S.N., Niagara University; M.S., CPNP, University at Buffalo

► Spouse: Robert

► Children: Robert, Christina, Genevieve, Nicholas

► Grandchildren: Maddex, Cooper, Vivienne

► Awards/achievements: Completed coursework for my Family Nurse Practitioner to be able to care for long-term survivors of childhood cancer; help run bone marrow donor drives for

"Be the Match Program" to recruit donors for international registry; contributing writer, Children's Oncology Group Resource Guide for Cancer Survivorship; medical service trip to Guyana, South America; nominated for Daisy Award at Roswell Park; attend Children's Oncology Group and bone marrow transplant conferences to keep my knowledge current.

► Proudest accomplishment in the last year: This has been my proudest accomplishment: to be nominated as a Business First Health Care Champion 2017 by my patients' mothers. I am humbled. The children I care for are the true champions and their mothers. The fact that they feel that way about me makes me very proud that I am able to provide that kind of care. It is such a difficult road a family walks when they have a child going through treatment for cancer. If I can make it a little easier, I have done my job and that means the world to me.

► Entered my profession because: I was first inspired by my beautiful mother, who was also a nurse. It was rewarding to help others and I loved working with children. I immediately found my passion in pediatric oncology. I was amazed by the resilience of these children. They smile despite the adversity. Their courage and strength inspires and makes you a better person. It helps keep your life in perspective. It is an honor and privilege to care for these children. Roswell Park also inspires me. It is a wonderful place to work with a great philosophy, everyone works as a team, it is all about the best care for our patients. I feel privileged to have spent my career here.

► Hobbies/interests: Volunteer for "Be the Match" Program recruiting bone marrow donors for patients in need of a bone marrow transplant; volunteer for Camp Good Days and Special Times for children with cancer; watching college football.

► Favorite nonprofits: Carly's Club, Camp Good Days and Special Times, PUNT Foundation – they all benefit children with cancer

HEALTH CARE CHAMPIONS

► Bucket list: Participate in medical service missions. Visit Ireland where my family is from. Have my own horse.

MATT CHRISTOPHER D.C.

Owner, Christopher Family Chiropractic

- Data: 350 Alberta Drive, Amherst, NY 14226
- With this company for: 7 years
- In the health care field for: 8 years
- Born on: Grand Island
- Lives in: Akron
- College: B.S., biomedical science/biochemical pharmacology, University at Buffalo; D.C., chiropractic, D'Youville College
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: It's the same as every day – my ability to give back and help others. Nothing makes me happier than to help others, professionally or personally. If every one of us could go that extra little step every day, the world would be a more beautiful place.
- Entered my profession because: I know this will come across as cliché but it was to help people. I always wanted to go into some aspect of health care, and chiropractic is a very hands-on field that gives me the ability to help people and to provide the best quality of care. I wanted the opportunity to integrate chiropractic and our conservative-care approach with traditional medicine. My practice is structured around evidence-based medicine and working with all medical specialties – surgeons, PCP, pain management, functional medicine and physical therapists on a daily basis.
- Hobbies/interests: Fishing, outdoors, my three beagles
- Favorite nonprofits: Project Homeless Connect, Harvest House, Roswell Park Alliance Foundation
- Bucket list: Travel more to see all the beautiful places our world has to offer.

JEREMY ESSMAN

Senior director of clinical operations, Kaleida Health

- Data: 100 High St, Buffalo, NY 14203 • jessman@kaleidahealth.org
- With this company for: 3.5 years
- In the health-care field for: 19 years
- Born in: Birmingham
- Lives in: Hamburg
- College: Physician assistant, D'Youville College; master's in health administration, Roberts Wesleyan College
- Spouse: Lisa
- Children: Raegan, Kylie, Payton, Cassidy, Chloe
- Awards/achievements: Airman of the Year, U.S. Air Force; Bravest of WNY; Air Force Commendation and Achievement Medal; Hometown Hero
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: Aiding in the transformation and advancement in the delivery of care to our patients. Through a collaborative and multidisciplinary approach with medical providers and nursing staff, we have enhanced the care on our neurological units. This includes increasing the number of medical providers in the unit, as well as the skill set, to ensure that patient recovery and safety is best in class. Buffalo General Medical Center/Gates Vascular Institute treats more strokes than any hospital in New York state and we have the ability to change people's outcomes and advance the quality of life. It's more than improving a process; it's improving someone's life.
- Entered my profession because: I feel blessed to have the opportunity to serve others in health care. I was fortunate when early in my military career I was selected to complete EMT training. This was the beginning of my passion for health care. Finding myself frequently in a position of leadership, and with a growing interest in the business side of health care, I elected to pursue a master's degree in health administration. My clinical experience coupled with my business education allows me to work effectively with health leaders to advance the delivery of health care.

- Hobbies/interests: Golfing, hunting, camping
- Favorite nonprofits: Friends of Mark Colmerauer, Compassion International, Lupus Alliance of WNY
- Bucket list: Travel in my RV cross-country. Complete an adventure race. Tour Europe.

TORIN FINVER M.D.

Medical director, Horizon Health; medical director, Renaissance Addiction Services; fellowship director of addiction medicine at University at Buffalo

- Data: 291 Elm St., Buffalo, NY 14203 • tfinver@horizon-health.org
- With this company for: 3 years
- In the health care field for: 24 years
- Born in: Chisholm, Minn.
- Lives in: Hamburg
- College: Pace University; M.D., University at Albany; Robert Packer Hospital, Family Medicine Residency; fellowship in addiction medicine, University at Buffalo
- Children: Hollace
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: To be offered the opportunity to be part of a team with the best people I've ever worked with. I think locally we have made some great changes to how we treat addiction. We continue to look for ways to improve and work together as a community.
- Entered my profession because: I loved the science. I had surgery as a child and admired my personal physicians. I dedicated myself to treating addictions because of the impact it had on my family and me.

- Hobbies/interests: Music, hiking, traveling

LAURA FISHER

Associate director of genetic counseling, Windsong Health Medical Alliance

- Data: 55 Spindrift Drive, Williamsville, NY 14221 • lfisher@windsonghealth.com
- With this company for: 1 year
- In the health care field for: 4 years
- Born in: Amherst
- Lives in: Clarence
- College: B.S., SUNY Geneseo; M.S., Boston University
- Awards/achievements: Louis A. and Ruth Siegel Awards for Excellence in Teaching, Honorable Mention
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: Establishing and leading a cancer genetic counseling program at Windsong to provide genetic testing to patients in Western New York.
- Entered my profession because: Genetic counseling encompasses my interests in health care, genetics, teaching, and counseling. I was inspired by my brother, who has a genetic condition called Fragile X Syndrome. Because of this, I can empathize with patients who are concerned they may have a genetic condition in their family.
- Hobbies/interests: Traveling, cooking, running
- Favorite nonprofits: Familial Cancer Foundation of WNY, National Fragile X Foundation, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
- Bucket list: Give a TED talk

RANDY GERLACH

Administrator, Schofield Residence

- Data: 3333 Elmwood Ave., Kenmore, NY 14217 • rgerlach@schofieldcare.org
- With this company for: 2 years
- In the health care field for: 36 years
- Born in: Buffalo
- Lives in: Williamsville
- College: B.S., Daemen College
- Spouse: Claudia
- Children: Jessica, Alison, Claire, Kevin
- Grandchildren: Alison, Ella
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: Schofield Residence receiving the Bronze Quality Award from the American Health Care Association
- Entered my profession because: My mom was in a nursing home at a young age. There I saw a need to enhance the experience of patients and families as they experience the later-life journey. Nothing would ever be as good as home but it was a goal that was relevant to every resident I have ever met.
- Hobbies/interests: Golf, music, coaching
- Favorite nonprofits: Ali's Rally, Unyts, WNY Kidney Foundation
- Bucket list: Travel to Italy. Attend the Masters. See a concert at the Reiman Theater in Nashville.

MICHAEL JORDAN M.D.

Attending physician, Lifetime Health Medical Group

- ▶ Data: 1185 Sweet Home Road, Amherst, NY 14226 • michael.jordan@lifetimehealth.org
- ▶ With this company for: 9 years
- ▶ In the health care field for: 10 years
- ▶ Born in: Buffalo
- ▶ Lives in: Amherst
- ▶ College: B.S., Niagara University; M.D., University at Buffalo
- ▶ Spouse: Jennifer
- ▶ Children: Lola, Emma
- ▶ Awards/achievements: Arnold P. Gold Foundation Humanism and Excellence in Teaching Award; Lifetime Health 2013 Physician of the Year, WNY; Make-a-Wish WNY advisory board member; primary care sports medicine physician for the Buffalo Bandits; chief of medicine at Lifetime Health (five years); admission committee, UB Medical school
- ▶ Proudest accomplishment in the last year: I was nominated by my peers at Lifetime to be the practice medical director at the Amherst site. This position allowed me to take a leadership role as I acted as the liaison with the administrators and the physicians in the group. Knowing that my fellow physicians looked to me as someone they could trust was extremely rewarding.
- ▶ Entered my profession because: I have always loved sports and been involved in many different sports including high school basketball, lacrosse, football and baseball. I was a Division 1 lacrosse player at Niagara University. At the same time, I excelled at and enjoyed biology, chemistry and math. The perfect fit for a career was combining my love of sports with academics, thus I decided to pursue sports medicine.

- ▶ Entered my profession because: As an R.N., I typically gravitate to positions in health care.

When the opportunity to work as an educator at Trocaire College was extended to me, it was purely happenstance and I felt like I was treading in unfamiliar waters. This uncertainty soon was exchanged with the realization that I was becoming part of something bigger than myself. Accepting new challenges and responsibilities allowed me the opportunity to hone abilities that I didn't even realize I had. I feel that my role in higher education was the perfect foundation that I needed as a young professional. It has been an endearing and captivating journey for me to help shape and mold the success of Trocaire's graduates.

- ▶ Hobbies/interests: Biking, swimming, reading
- ▶ Favorite nonprofits: Direct Relief, Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, Samaritan's Purse
- ▶ Bucket list: Scuba dive with my husband. Write a book with my daughter. Inspire the people I am surrounded by, one person at a time.

► Lives in: Newfane

► College: B.S., Hilbert College; M.A., Medaille College

► Spouse: Matthew

► Children: Cameron, Madison, Jocelyn

► Awards/achievements: Appointed by the Western New York Chemical Dependency Consortium to chair the Public Policy Committee for the last two years. I have had the privilege of speaking to many different groups and professions about addiction, treatment and recovery.

► Proudest accomplishment in the last year: I was able to participate in a learning collaborative on Trauma-Informed Care through the Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services and the Institute on Trauma and Trauma-Informed Care. Through this collaborative, I learned about the importance of being a Trauma-Informed organization and was given the tools in which to implement Trauma-Informed Care throughout all aspects of an organization. Armed with this new knowledge and tools, I was able to chair a small committee in the BryLin Behavioral Health System and currently lead the organization's Trauma-Informed Care implementation plan.

► Entered my profession because: Early on I was fascinated by what made people think, feel and behave in the ways that they do. With addiction, specifically, I felt many people were not able to get help because there has existed a stigma about addiction, which is in part due to the myths and misunderstandings surrounding the disease of addiction. The more I learned about addiction, the more my passion for helping people receive treatment for their disease grew. I saw how amazing people were struggling with their illness and wanted to be part of helping them manage their disease and learn how to live full and fulfilling lives.

► Hobbies/interests: Camping, reading, bowling

► Favorite nonprofits: Kids Escaping Drugs Inc.; Pride Center of WNY; Veterans One-Stop Center of WNY Inc.

► In the health care field for: 15 years

► Born in: Buffalo

► Lives in: Buffalo

► College: B.S., biomedical engineering, The Catholic University of America; M.D., University at Buffalo; Ph.D., philosophy, University at Buffalo.

► Spouse: Samantha

► Children: Paulina, Eliana, Niki, George

► Awards/achievements: Congress of Neurological Surgeons Vascular Fellowship for Cerebrovascular Research, Toshiba Stroke Imaging Research Fellowship; Gold Humanism in Excellence in Teaching Award

► Proudest accomplishment in the last year: In the last year Kaleida Health has significantly reduced the number of acquired contagions. Through a collaborative and multidisciplinary approach involving administrators, physicians, nurses and clinical staff, we've been able to continue to improve the level of care for patients. As a best-in-class health system, our dedicated staff worked tirelessly to identify best practices to ensure patients receive the best care.

► Entered my profession because: I chose neurosurgery for an assortment of reasons. One of them is that it allowed for the greatest opportunity to merge biophysics and engineering with patient care and treatment. The hybrid of those specialties allows for the creation of new, advanced technology in neurosurgery.

► Hobbies/interests: Music, running and exploring use of virtual reality in teaching and education.

► Favorite nonprofits: Brain Aneurysm Foundation, PUCCS, The Jacobs Institute

► Bucket list: Visit every continent. Travel to space. Perform remote/wireless robotic neurosurgery on a patient in a different physical location.

JESSICA YOUNG M.D.

Assistant professor of surgical oncology; director of the Breast Cancer Risk Assessment and Prevention Program, Roswell Park Cancer Institute

- Data: Elm and Carlton streets, Buffalo, NY 14263 • jessica.young@roswellpark.org
- With this company for: 5 years
- In the health care field for: 12 years
- Born in: Toronto
- Lives in: Buffalo
- College: B.S., Pennsylvania State University; M.D., Jefferson Medical College
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: Being named co-program director of the breast surgery oncology fellowship program at Roswell. Great mentors and mentees have been instrumental in my life and I am so happy to be part of that life-educating process through our fellowship.

- Entered my profession because: I have always been a practical person, and medicine always struck me as an extremely practical profession. People will always need doctors, right? And of all the fields in medicine, surgery is definitely one of the most practical. It is direct, dynamic and life-saving. I specifically work in breast cancer surgery because I love having (mostly) women as my patients. Women are strong, fierce, resilient creatures and being able to help them during a terrifying time of their lives is an inspiration and an honor. I honestly think we'll find a cure for cancer in my lifetime, and I'll happily retire.
- Hobbies/interests: Traveling, baseball, reading escapist fiction
- Favorite nonprofits: Medecins Sans Frontieres (Doctors Without Borders), Childfund International, Roswell Park Alliance Research Foundation
- Bucket list: Throw the opening pitch at a Jays game. Learn to cook Chinese food. Compete on "So You Think You Can Dance."

ROBERT ZIELINSKI M.D.

Physician, medical oncology and hematology, Buffalo Medical Group PC

- Data: 325 Essjay Road, Williamsville, NY 14221 • rzielinski@buffalomedicalgroup.com
- With this company for: 26 years
- In the health care field for: 32 years
- Born in: Buffalo
- Lives in: Clarence
- College: B.S., Cornell University; M.D., SUNY Upstate Medical Center
- Spouse: Linda (deceased)

- Stepsons: Jeffrey, Patrick
- Grandchildren: Mitchell, Connor, Nicholas, Tyler, Roslyn, Marygrace, Mike
- Awards/achievements: Physician of the Year, Hospice Buffalo (1996) and Niagara Hospice (1998); Kevin Guest House Heart of Compassion (2003); Lutheran Charities Magi Award (2013)
- Past: Hospice Buffalo board of directors (1995-08); Buffalo Medical Group board (1997-99; 2001-16), Zion Lutheran Church Clarence Center Council (2005-10; president, 2007-09)
- Current: Lake Chautauqua Lutheran Center board of directors; regional leadership board, American Lung Association of the Northeast
- Proudest accomplishment in the last year: I was co-captain of the Buffalo Medical Group team entered in the American Lung Association's Fight For Air Climb in March. BMG was a corporate sponsor and we had over 50 climbers, all in honor of my wife, who died of idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis in March 2016, and our CEO's mother-in-law, who died of lung cancer shortly after. I became the public face of the cause, appearing in a web-based video for the group and on WGRZ-TV in two segments of their programming. We built a team of over 50 climbers and raised by far the most money in the region and third most in the United States.
- Entered my profession because: As a medical oncologist, I am privileged to be part of some of the happiest and saddest moments of people's lives. Helping the dying to make difficult decisions and to ease the burdens they and their families carry is every bit as rewarding as the celebrations with long-term survivors.
- Hobbies/interests: Golf, horse racing, scuba diving
- Favorite nonprofits: Hospice, Lake Chautauqua Lutheran Center, American Lung Association
- Bucket list: Dive the Great Barrier Reef before it all dies out. Attend the Breeders Cup. Make a hole-in-one.
