▶ ABOUT THIS SECTION

READER’S GUIDE

Leads is a collection of information gathered from Buffalo-area courthouses, government offices and informational websites. We gather these public records so you can build your business. No matter what business you are in, you can gain a competitive edge by reading the Business Leads. Find new and expanding businesses and new customers. Find out the area's commercial and residential hot spots. Find clues about the financial condition of your vendors, customers or competitors. Listings for each category may vary from week to week because of information availability and space constraints.

IN THIS SECTION

The following is an explanation of some of the more complicated Leads categories. Categories not noted are self-explanatory.

Applications for authority: Companies incorporated outside New York and requesting permission to do business in the state.

Business certificates: Individuals or partners filing with the intention of opening a business.

Federal tax liens: Filed by the IRS against companies owing income taxes, quarterly taxes, unemployment taxes etc. Federal tax liens released means debt has been paid.

Industrial warrants: Filed by the state commissioner of labor against businesses owing unemployment taxes.

Judgments: Businesses filed in Buffalo, county and state courts against individuals, personal property and businesses for unpaid bills.

Lis pendens: Filed by a mortgage holder against a property owner; this can be the start of foreclosure proceedings.

Mechanics liens: Reserved for the construction industry, mechanics liens are placed by contractors against individuals and businesses.

Mergers: Filed with the state Department of State, these might be the consolidation of several company names within a corporation or the merger of companies under one name.

Name changes: Filed with the New York Department of State to change a company name.

Name reservations: A company has 60 days from the date of filing with the state Department of State to keep the name or it becomes available to the public.

New corporations: Filed with the state Department of State, this is necessary for a business to be incorporated. Legal work is usually done by an attorney whose name and address appear as the incorporator.

State tax warrants: Filed by the state tax commissioner against individuals and businesses that owe sales tax, business taxes and personal income taxes.
