BERRETT's job responsibilities included travel to meet with customers domestically and internationally to provide information technology (IT) training and support. BERRETT resided in Gilbert, Arizona.

3. In his position with WWT, BERRETT submitted reports via the internet to WWT located in Maryland Heights, Missouri detailing his expenses utilizing the company credit card ending in "2122" which was assigned to him.

4. During BERRETT'S employment, he improperly used the company credit card ending in "2122" to purchase "tokens" from "myfreecams.com," (hereinafter "MFC") a website wherein women perform stripping routines via a webcam.

5. During BERRETT'S employment, he utilized the "tokens" he improperly purchased with the company credit card ending in "2122" to tip the MFC online strippers in excess of 2200 times, totaling more than $100,000.

6. During BERRETT'S employment, he also utilized the company credit card ending in "2122" to purchase a number of gifts for strippers he befriended, including but not limited to, chocolates, flowers, electronic equipment, wine, a television, handbag, laptop computer, iPod, and shoes. Additionally, BERRETT also improperly used the company credit card ending in "2122" to purchase a sexual device for himself.

8. In total, from approximately September 16, 2013, until approximately October 21, 2014, BERRETT falsely and fraudulently redirected more than $476,000 of WWT's funds for his personal gain.

DEFENDANT'S SCHEME

9. To conceal the true nature of his expenditures, BERRETT submitted expense reports to WWT in which he claimed he was purchasing training materials, computer networking supplies, and traveling to meet with, train, and entertain WWT customers.

10. To substantiate his claimed expenses, BERRETT falsified invoices and submitted
